9015	2015 Chateau Talbot, 4 ^{ème} Grand Cru Classé, St Julien Talbot is consistently making attractive wines in a classically structured style. The 2015 has a fresh nose of dried herbs, with mineral and bramble notes on the palate. Tannins are firm, but in balance. A wine to appeal to traditionalists.	130

9008	2020 Echo de Lynch Bages Chateau Haut-Bages, Pauillac 60% Cabernet Sauvignon and 40% Merlot. Bramble fruit, toasty aromas & soft florality. Structured & serious from the get-go with super-fine tannins that fill the mouth & coat the tongue & cheeks, but with a cool, graphite grip to them. Supple but not plush at all, definitely leaner but not strict, as there's a gentle chew that gives a lovely, welcoming weight on the palate. Juicy & vibrant, this has energy and life while remaining refined & elegant; nothing has been overworked here. A really impressive second wine with terroir speaking. Succulent & easy yet confident and well built.	99
